This dynamic, one-and-a-half hour workshop, presented by a California State Teachers' Retirement System Benefits Counselor, is designed for educators approaching retirement. This is not a gimmick, and no one will try to sell you anything. Our local counselors here in Pleasanton/Dublin want you to do what they have been able to do—retire financially healthy after long and wonderful careers in public education because, like you, they were teachers at one time!

You will learn:

- The role of CalSTRS and the role of your employer
- The basics of your CalSTRS retirement
- The three decisions to make when retiring
- What you should be doing to prepare for retirement

There is no cost to attend and spouses or partners are welcome.
